Mr. Michie:

Re the attached

It is true that Lazar has written articles <sup>about RFE</sup> in a paper called "AZEMBER" ~~about RFE~~, and formerly the paper was not favorable to the Hungarian Desk.

Lazar himself made personal attacks against Ggula and against Gellert. ~~For that~~ He was fired in 1952. Gellert told Bell <sup>later</sup> ~~he~~ had served his penance, and in June of 1954, with Lang's knowledge and approval, Lazar was re-hired as a freelancer and is at this moment writing freelance for RFE's Hungarian desk.

Gellert says he forgives Lazar for the attacks and that if we failed to hire everyone who made a personal attack on a chief we would not have a desk. (I'm afraid he is right). He also feels that he should be allowed to hire Lazar and take full responsibility himself for so doing.
